“Silk and Bamboo” spans a broad range of musical moods, timbres, and tempos, and regional styles. It includes traditional pieces, modern Sizhu compositions and Taiwanese folk songs. Your experience at the concert will be enhanced by the CCSA Middle School Dance Company’s performance of a Chinese Ribbon Dance. The Art Gallery will be open for viewing an exhibit of Chinese Brush Paintings done by CCSA students under the guidance of artist Bess H. Tieh.

Chai Found Music Workshop is one of the foremost ensembles of Chinese Chamber Music in the world. Founded in 1991, the group is dedicated to a style of traditional music strongly rooted in improvisation.

The group has performed traditional and contemporary Chinese Sizhu music in countless concerts in major venues throughout Asia, Europe and the United States.
